Dear Father Houtart,

Many thanks for your request for a brief note on religious studies and theology for Social Compass.

I enclose about 1000 words on "The Example of Gibson Winter."

If you care to publish this note in your forthcoming issue, I must request you

(1) to send me explicit written permission to use these materials in whole or in part, in English or in translation, in my book on Method in Theology and in any future collection of my papers, and

(2) to print at the beginning or at the end of the note
Copyright (c) 1970 by Bernard Lonergan, lest some future editor unaware of this permission should allow some third party to print and copyright the note in English or translation.

With warmest personal regards,

Bernard Lonergan S.J.
