Dear Father Lonegran,

My time in Toronto was both exciting and pleasant; but alas, also hurried. I did not manage to get much beyond the campus of the U. of T., and therefore failed to give myself the pleasure of getting in touch with you again. I was sorry.

Meanwhile, someone has told me that you recently delivered a paper on "The History and Metaphysics of Faith". If this rumour be accurate, I should be highly grateful if it were possible for you to send me a copy, or to put me down for an offprint when eventually you publish it if this is not yet the case. I have decided to pursue my interest in this question. I used my Toronto visit as an occasion to provide an opportunity for better qualified men than I to dissuade me from this, if they wished, but they did not do so.

Perhaps I may enclose a copy of the little thing that I tried out there.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Wilfred Cantwell Smith
