

The Journal of Nervous and Mental Disease, Coolidge
Foundation, 1407 Sherwood Ave, Richmond 5 Va
Vol 112 No 1; July 1950

a/

Iago Galdston MD, Psychiatry and Religion, pp 46-57

Religion enters psychology by Super-ego.
Needed because psychopaths much more frequent than psycho-neurotics; i.e. defect of "super-ego" more common now than excess.

— Roland Dalbiez, Psychoanalytical Method and the Doctrine of Freud, ET by T F Lindsay, Longmans 1941, Reprinted 1948
2 vols: I. Exposition, II. Discussion.

— Louis O Kattsoff, A Philosophy of Mathematics,
Iowa State College Press, Ames, Iowa
1948; second printing 1949.

— Cohen and Nagel, An Introduction to Logic and Scientific Method, Harcourt, Brace and Co, New York, 1934 (1st ed)

— Lord Acton, Essays on Freedom and Power, 1949
Trade edition: The Beacon Press, Boston Mass
Text and Library Edition: The Free Press, Glencoe, Ill.
452 pp, large bibliography