

TD 20 from page 6

encounter to Kierkegaard

Transcendental approach

Method must philosophize - i.e. place itself in relation to God transcendent

Method must discipline his own questions control = method

Method must express spiritual realities must talk to people in terms of his Selbstverständnis

Selbstverständlichkeit

uses its own categories

transcultural

can account for earlier Denkformen

method of questions

coherence
static

usually organized by Ar. ideal

Must anticipate a question Konkretes Analogie

Beitrag: Theol. Ep. u.g.

theology really religion

focus
reporting on religion
teaching theology

Ktun position
Bekannt muscularis

1^o pluralism - | de facto
| de iure

2^o speak to people in terms of / Selbstverständnis Selbstverständnis

in communication - extend

in systematic - set base towards which they can move

in so far as Selbst- und definition

3^o Grace as experienced / as base of Cal

without interpretation

of Apologetics | TD 20

of ^{Foundational} Systematics | principles of transformation 53

4. Review

α Greece on base of conclusion transposition of categories

VIII 53

accepting hypotheses

TD 20

β dialogue is understand TD 27 capable of critique of MS

from a base of papers that

concepts
structures
method

γ speak to people in terms of their self-understanding

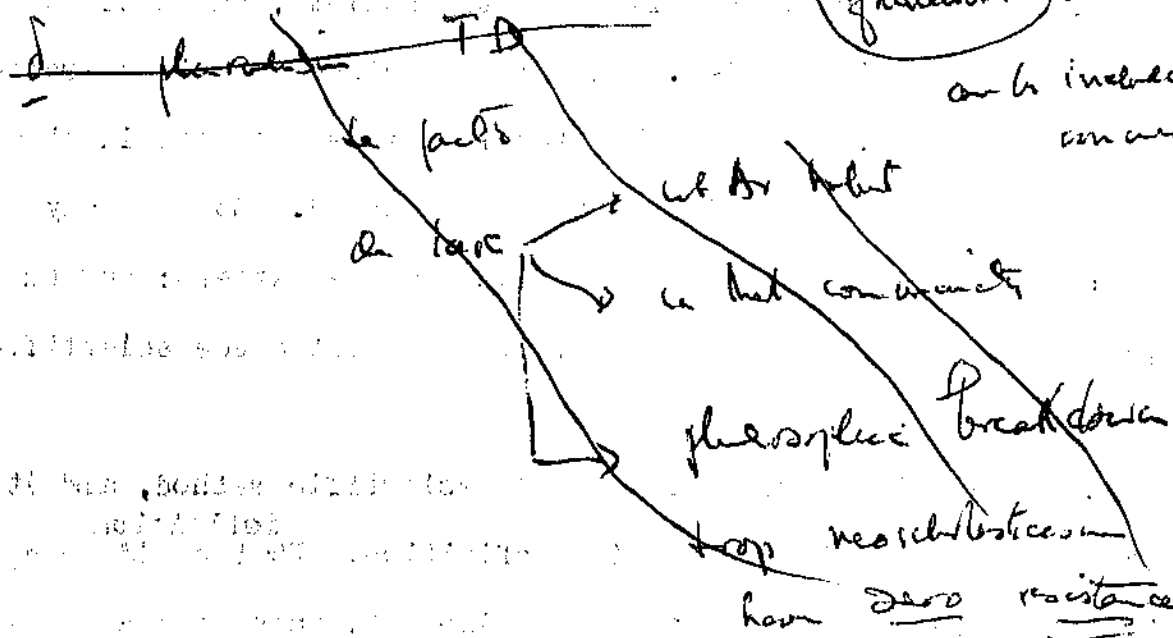

VIII 60

δ in communications, certainly ε in epistemology, set up base to which they can move as level improves framework which they can be included in other

concepts

5 pendulum TD 21 +

not relativism

not accepting contradictions not replacing N. Sch. with by vacuum same

rejecting synthesis & deconstructivist model is an on-going process

TM not breakwater

but shape of wave

shape of wave

critique
concepts to assist

not the habit

we can know all

may know all

the world

the world

the world

the world

the world

the world

the world

the world

the world

the world

the world

the world

the world

use the TM to transform knowledge

Magnum in New Position

TD 26

4-16

in classical culture

Sheet 179 (1967)

81-95